

Montana State Music Teachers Association Publications and Web Advertising

With more optimism than ever, MSMTA is thrilled to be a part of the Montana music community as awareness of the wealth found in live performance has a fresh appreciation. One of the ways that treasure is made known is through our publications.

Advertising is offered at one annual price for all of a year's publications: the fall and spring editions of the Montana Music News, the October Conference Booklet and the MSMTA website. It is also available in a single edition. The publications reach music teachers state-wide, the parents and students they serve, and other advertisers. Samples of our publications can be found at msmta.com/newsletter. Here are the prices.
