

Montana State Music Teachers Association
Publications and Web Advertising

Now that musicians across the state are testing the waters of in-person events and enjoying anew the joy of live performance, MSMTA publications are a great way to connect with audiences and collaborators.

Advertising is offered at one annual price for all of a year's publications, the fall and spring editions of the Montana Music News, the October Conference Booklet and the MSMTA website. It is also available in a single edition. The publications reach music teachers state-wide, the parents and students they serve, and other advertisers. Samples of our publications can be found at msmta.com/newsletter. Here are the prices:
